

SUPPORTING SOMEONE WHO IS GRIEVING: PRACTICAL HELP GUIDE & CHECKLIST

How to Show Up, What to Say, and Meaningful Ways to Help

OCTOBER 20, 2025

MEMORIAL MERITS

MemorialMerits.com

SUPPORTING SOMEONE WHO IS GRIEVING: PRACTICAL HELP GUIDE &

CHECKLIST How to Show Up, What to Say, and Meaningful Ways to Help

INTRODUCTION

When someone you care about is grieving, you want to help but may feel uncertain about what to do or say. This guide provides practical tools to support someone through loss with compassion and effectiveness.

Use this guide to:

- Understand what grieving people actually need
- Know what to say (and what never to say)
- Identify concrete ways to help
- Plan ongoing support beyond the first weeks
- Navigate different types of loss

Your presence and care matter more than perfect words.

UNDERSTANDING WHAT THEY NEED
The person I'm supporting:	_
Their relationship to the person who died:
Date of death:
My relationship to the grieving person:

WHAT GRIEVING PEOPLE ACTUALLY NEED

Check the needs you can help provide:

- ☐ Presence without solutions
  - Just being there without trying to fix anything

Memorial Merits | Clear Guidance Through Impossible Times

Read the full guide at: https://memorialmerits.com/supporting-someone-grieving-how-to-help-friend/

• Sitting with their pain without making it better
Permission to feel everything
Validation of all emotions without judgment
No pressure to feel better or move on
Space for contradictory feelings
Practical help with daily tasks
Meals, household chores, errands
Help with logistics and paperwork
Childcare or dependent care
To hear their person's name
Talking about the person who died
Sharing memories and stories
Acknowledging the person's importance
Ongoing support beyond the first week
• Consistent presence for months
Remembering significant dates
Staying connected long-term
HAT TO SAY (AND NEVER SAY)
ELPFUL PHRASES ✓
mple, honest statements that provide comfort:
"I'm so sorry"   "This is terrible" or "This really sucks"   "I don't know what to say"   "Tell e about [name]"   "I'm here for you" (with specific offers)   "It's okay to not be okay"   "Ou don't have to be strong right now"   "I can't imagine what you're going through"   Name] was lucky to have you"   "I'm thinking about you"  "Memorial Merits   Clear Guidance Through Impossible Times

Read the full guide at:  $\frac{\text{https://memorialmerits.com/supporting-someone-grieving-how-to-help-friend/}{\text{friend/}}$

Practice saying these phrases so they feel natural when needed.
PHRASES TO NEVER SAY X
Well-intentioned but hurtful statements to avoid:
□ "They're in a better place" □ "Everything happens for a reason" □ "God needed another angel" □ "At least they're not suffering" □ "At least they lived a long life" □ "You're so strong" □ "I know how you feel" (unless very similar loss) □ "Time heals all wounds" □ "They would want you to be happy" □ "You need to be strong for [others]" □ "Are you over it yet?" □ "You can have another [baby/relationship/etc.]"
If you've said these in the past, forgive yourself. Now you know better.
PRACTICAL WAYS TO HELP
IMMEDIATE SUPPORT (First Days/Weeks)
Check actions you can take:
FOOD &amp; MEALS: $\square$ Bring ready-to-eat meals (include paper plates/disposables) $\square$ Drop off groceries without asking first $\square$ Provide gift cards for food delivery $\square$ Organize meal train with others $\square$ Include beverages, snacks, comfort foods
Specific plan:
What I'll bring:
When I'll bring it:
Dietary considerations:
HOUSEHOLD TASKS: ☐ Mow lawn or shovel snow ☐ Take out trash ☐ Do dishes or laundry ☐ Walk the dog ☐ Clean house or specific rooms ☐ Water plants ☐ Bring in mail
Specific plan:
Task(s) I'll handle:

Day/time I'll do it:
• Frequency: □ One-time □ Weekly □ As needed
CHILDCARE & DEPENDENT CARE: ☐ Pick up kids from school on specific days ☐ Keep children for afternoon/evening ☐ Take children for fun activity ☐ Help with homework or bedtime routines ☐ Drive to activities or appointments ☐ Provide care for elderly parents or dependents
Specific plan:
• What I'll do:
• When:
How often:
LOGISTICS & COORDINATION: □ Make necessary phone calls □ Research funeral homes or services □ Help with paperwork □ Coordinate visitors or calls □ Update others so they don't have to repeat information □ Drive them to appointments □ Sit with them during difficult tasks  Specific help:
ONGOING SUPPORT (Weeks and Months Later)
This is when support matters most, as everyone else disappears.
CHECK-INS: $\square$ Set phone reminder to text every few days $\square$ Call weekly at predictable time $\square$ Show up at their house regularly $\square$ Send care packages or cards $\square$ Schedule regular walks or coffee dates
My check-in plan:
• Frequency:

• Me	thod: □ Text □ Call □ Visit □ Other:
• Day	y/time:
SIGNIFIC	CANT DATES TO REMEMBER:
Mark thes	se on your calendar and reach out:
• One	e-week mark:
• One	e-month mark:
• Th	ree-month mark:
• Six	-month mark:
• One	e-year anniversary of death:
• The	eir person's birthday:
• The	eir person's death date (annual):
• Ho	lidays (first Christmas, Thanksgiving, etc.):
• Oth	ner significant dates:
• -	or significant dates: □ Send text acknowledging the day □ Call to check in □ Visit at company □ Send flowers or meaningful gift □ Share a memory of their person
attend) 🗆 1	IONS & INCLUSION: ☐ Continue inviting them to social events (no pressure to Include them in group plans ☐ Do low-pressure activities together (walk, watch TV) nem to future events (showing they're in your future) ☐ Include them in holidays and
My inclusi
Wiy ilicius	on pian:

if asked □ Support through "firsts" (first birthday, holiday, etc.) □ Help with longer-term decisions □ Be present for ongoing challenges  COMMUNICATION GUIDELINES  TEXTING & MESSAGING  Helpful text messages: □ "Thinking of you today" □ "No need to respond, just wanted you to know I'm here" □ "Remembering [name] and their [specific quality/memory]" □ "Can I drop off dinner Tuesday at 6pm?" □ "Want company? I can come sit with you, or give you space"  Text frequency: □ Daily □ Every few days □ Weckly □ As needed  Don't expect responses. Grieving people often can't reply. Send supportive messages anyway.  PHONE CALLS  When calling: □ Keep it brief unless they want to talk longer □ Let them guide the conversation □ Don't fill silence with chatter □ Listen more than you talk □ It's okay if they cry □ Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule: • Day/time I'll call: • Frequency: □ N-PERSON VISITS  Guidelines for visiting: □ Confirm they want company before showing up □ Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits □ Don't stay too long (unless they want you to) □  Let them lead conversation topics □ Be comfortable with silence and tears □ Bring specific help, not just visit □ Don't expect them to host or entertain you	NEXT-PHASE SUPPORT: □ Help with return to work transition □ Assist with estate matters
COMMUNICATION GUIDELINES  TEXTING & MESSAGING  Helpful text messages:    "Thinking of you today"   "No need to respond, just wanted you to know I'm here"   "Remembering [name] and their [specific quality/memory]"   "Can I drop off dinner Tuesday at 6pm?"   "Want company? I can come sit with you, or give you space"  Text frequency:   Daily   Every few days   Weekly   As needed  Don't expect responses. Grieving people often can't reply. Send supportive messages anyway.  PHONE CALLS  When calling:   Keep it brief unless they want to talk longer   Let them guide the conversation   Don't fill silence with chatter   Listen more than you talk   It's okay if they cry   Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule:  • Day/time I'll call:   Frequency:    • Frequency:   Confirm they want company before showing up   Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits   Don't stay too long (unless they want you to)   Let them lead conversation topics   Be comfortable with silence and tears   Bring specific	if asked □ Support through "firsts" (first birthday, holiday, etc.) □ Help with longer-term
TEXTING & MESSAGING  Helpful text messages:    "Thinking of you today"   "No need to respond, just wanted you to know I'm here"    "Remembering [name] and their [specific quality/memory]"   "Can I drop off dinner Tuesday at 6pm?"   "Want company? I can come sit with you, or give you space"  Text frequency:   Daily   Every few days   Weekly   As needed  Don't expect responses. Grieving people often can't reply. Send supportive messages anyway.  PHONE CALLS  When calling:   Keep it brief unless they want to talk longer   Let them guide the conversation   Don't fill silence with chatter   Listen more than you talk   It's okay if they cry   Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule:  • Day/time I'll call:  • Frequency:   IN-PERSON VISITS  Guidelines for visiting:   Confirm they want company before showing up   Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits   Don't stay too long (unless they want you to)   Let them lead conversation topics   Be comfortable with silence and tears   Bring specific	decisions □ Be present for ongoing challenges
TEXTING & MESSAGING  Helpful text messages:    "Thinking of you today"   "No need to respond, just wanted you to know I'm here"    "Remembering [name] and their [specific quality/memory]"   "Can I drop off dinner Tuesday at 6pm?"   "Want company? I can come sit with you, or give you space"  Text frequency:   Daily   Every few days   Weekly   As needed  Don't expect responses. Grieving people often can't reply. Send supportive messages anyway.  PHONE CALLS  When calling:   Keep it brief unless they want to talk longer   Let them guide the conversation   Don't fill silence with chatter   Listen more than you talk   It's okay if they cry   Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule:  • Day/time I'll call:  • Frequency:   IN-PERSON VISITS  Guidelines for visiting:   Confirm they want company before showing up   Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits   Don't stay too long (unless they want you to)   Let them lead conversation topics   Be comfortable with silence and tears   Bring specific
Helpful text messages:  □ "Thinking of you today" □ "No need to respond, just wanted you to know I'm here" □ "Remembering [name] and their [specific quality/memory]" □ "Can I drop off dinner Tuesday at 6pm?" □ "Want company? I can come sit with you, or give you space"  Text frequency: □ Daily □ Every few days □ Weekly □ As needed  Don't expect responses. Grieving people often can't reply. Send supportive messages anyway.  PHONE CALLS  When calling: □ Keep it brief unless they want to talk longer □ Let them guide the conversation □ Don't fill silence with chatter □ Listen more than you talk □ It's okay if they cry □ Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule:  • Day/time I'll call: □ □ □ Frequency: □ □ Frequency: □ □ Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits □ Don't stay too long (unless they want you to) □ Let them lead conversation topics □ Be comfortable with silence and tears □ Bring specific	COMMUNICATION GUIDELINES
□ "Thinking of you today" □ "No need to respond, just wanted you to know I'm here" □ "Remembering [name] and their [specific quality/memory]" □ "Can I drop off dinner Tuesday at 6pm?" □ "Want company? I can come sit with you, or give you space"  Text frequency: □ Daily □ Every few days □ Weekly □ As needed  Don't expect responses. Grieving people often can't reply. Send supportive messages anyway.  PHONE CALLS  When calling: □ Keep it brief unless they want to talk longer □ Let them guide the conversation □ Don't fill silence with chatter □ Listen more than you talk □ It's okay if they cry □ Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule:  • Day/time I'll call: □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □	TEXTING & MESSAGING
"Remembering [name] and their [specific quality/memory]"   "Can I drop off dinner Tuesday at 6pm?"   "Want company? I can come sit with you, or give you space"  Text frequency:   Daily   Every few days   Weekly   As needed  Don't expect responses. Grieving people often can't reply. Send supportive messages anyway.  PHONE CALLS  When calling:   Keep it brief unless they want to talk longer   Let them guide the conversation   Don't fill silence with chatter   Listen more than you talk   It's okay if they cry   Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule:  • Day/time I'll call:   • Frequency:   IN-PERSON VISITS  Guidelines for visiting:   Confirm they want company before showing up   Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits   Don't stay too long (unless they want you to)   Let them lead conversation topics   Be comfortable with silence and tears   Bring specific	Helpful text messages:
6pm?" □ "Want company? I can come sit with you, or give you space"  Text frequency: □ Daily □ Every few days □ Weekly □ As needed  Don't expect responses. Grieving people often can't reply. Send supportive messages anyway.  PHONE CALLS  When calling: □ Keep it brief unless they want to talk longer □ Let them guide the conversation □ Don't fill silence with chatter □ Listen more than you talk □ It's okay if they cry □ Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule:  • Day/time I'll call: □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □	□ "Thinking of you today" □ "No need to respond, just wanted you to know I'm here" □
Text frequency:  Daily  Every few days  Weekly  As needed  Don't expect responses. Grieving people often can't reply. Send supportive messages anyway.  PHONE CALLS  When calling:  Keep it brief unless they want to talk longer  Let them guide the conversation  Don't fill silence with chatter  Listen more than you talk  It's okay if they cry  Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule:  Day/time I'll call:  Frequency:  IN-PERSON VISITS  Guidelines for visiting:  Confirm they want company before showing up  Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits  Don't stay too long (unless they want you to)  Let them lead conversation topics  Bring specific	"Remembering [name] and their [specific quality/memory]"   "Can I drop off dinner Tuesday at Don't expect responses. Grieving people often can't reply. Send supportive messages anyway.  PHONE CALLS  When calling: □ Keep it brief unless they want to talk longer □ Let them guide the conversation □ Don't fill silence with chatter □ Listen more than you talk □ It's okay if they cry □ Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule:  • Day/time I'll call: □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □	6pm?" □ "Want company? I can come sit with you, or give you space"
PHONE CALLS  When calling:    Keep it brief unless they want to talk longer   Let them guide the conversation   Don't fill silence with chatter   Listen more than you talk   It's okay if they cry   Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule:  • Day/time I'll call:	Text frequency: □ Daily □ Every few days □ Weekly □ As needed
When calling: ☐ Keep it brief unless they want to talk longer ☐ Let them guide the conversation ☐ Don't fill silence with chatter ☐ Listen more than you talk ☐ It's okay if they cry ☐ Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule:  • Day/time I'll call: ☐ ☐ Frequency: ☐ IN-PERSON VISITS  Guidelines for visiting: ☐ Confirm they want company before showing up ☐ Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits ☐ Don't stay too long (unless they want you to) ☐ Let them lead conversation topics ☐ Be comfortable with silence and tears ☐ Bring specific	Don't expect responses. Grieving people often can't reply. Send supportive messages anyway.
When calling: ☐ Keep it brief unless they want to talk longer ☐ Let them guide the conversation ☐ Don't fill silence with chatter ☐ Listen more than you talk ☐ It's okay if they cry ☐ Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule:  • Day/time I'll call: ☐ ☐ Frequency: ☐ IN-PERSON VISITS  Guidelines for visiting: ☐ Confirm they want company before showing up ☐ Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits ☐ Don't stay too long (unless they want you to) ☐ Let them lead conversation topics ☐ Be comfortable with silence and tears ☐ Bring specific conversation □ Don't fill silence with chatter □ Listen more than you talk □ It's okay if they cry □ Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule:  • Day/time I'll call:  • Frequency:  IN-PERSON VISITS  Guidelines for visiting: □ Confirm they want company before showing up □ Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits □ Don't stay too long (unless they want you to) □  Let them lead conversation topics □ Be comfortable with silence and tears □ Bring specific	PHONE CALLS
□ Don't try to cheer them up  Call schedule:  • Day/time I'll call:  • Frequency:  IN-PERSON VISITS  Guidelines for visiting: □ Confirm they want company before showing up □ Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits □ Don't stay too long (unless they want you to) □  Let them lead conversation topics □ Be comfortable with silence and tears □ Bring specific	When calling: □ Keep it brief unless they want to talk longer □ Let them guide the
Call schedule:  • Day/time I'll call:  • Frequency:  IN-PERSON VISITS  Guidelines for visiting: □ Confirm they want company before showing up □ Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits □ Don't stay too long (unless they want you to) □  Let them lead conversation topics □ Be comfortable with silence and tears □ Bring specific	conversation □ Don't fill silence with chatter □ Listen more than you talk □ It's okay if they cry
Day/time I'll call:      Frequency:  IN-PERSON VISITS  Guidelines for visiting: □ Confirm they want company before showing up □ Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits □ Don't stay too long (unless they want you to) □  Let them lead conversation topics □ Be comfortable with silence and tears □ Bring specific	☐ Don't try to cheer them up
• Frequency:	Call schedule:
IN-PERSON VISITS  Guidelines for visiting: □ Confirm they want company before showing up □ Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits □ Don't stay too long (unless they want you to) □ Let them lead conversation topics □ Be comfortable with silence and tears □ Bring specific	Day/time I'll call:
IN-PERSON VISITS  Guidelines for visiting: □ Confirm they want company before showing up □ Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits □ Don't stay too long (unless they want you to) □ Let them lead conversation topics □ Be comfortable with silence and tears □ Bring specific	• Frequency:
Guidelines for visiting: □ Confirm they want company before showing up □ Or text "Coming by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits □ Don't stay too long (unless they want you to) □ Let them lead conversation topics □ Be comfortable with silence and tears □ Bring specific	• •
by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits $\square$ Don't stay too long (unless they want you to) $\square$ Let them lead conversation topics $\square$ Be comfortable with silence and tears $\square$ Bring specific	IN-PERSON VISITS
by at 2pm with food" for practical help visits $\square$ Don't stay too long (unless they want you to) $\square$ Let them lead conversation topics $\square$ Be comfortable with silence and tears $\square$ Bring specific	Guidelines for visiting: □ Confirm they want company before showing up □ Or text "Coming
Let them lead conversation topics □ Be comfortable with silence and tears □ Bring specific help, not just visit □ Don't expect them to host or entertain you

Visit plan:
SUPPORTING DIFFERENT TYPES OF LOSS
Adjust your support based on their specific loss:
LOSS OF SPOUSE/PARTNER
Specific support needs: □ Help with tasks their partner handled (household, finances, etc.) □ Continue couple-friend inclusion (don't drop them) □ Acknowledge identity shift from "we" to "I" □ Offer to talk through decisions □ Remember they lost their primary support person
My specific plan:
LOSS OF PARENT
Specific support needs: $\square$ Don't minimize based on age ("they lived a long life") $\square$ Help with estate logistics if needed $\square$ Acknowledge this foundational relationship loss $\square$ Recognize identity shift (no living parents, becoming older generation) $\square$ Support through clearing parent's home if applicable
My specific plan:
LOSS OF CHILD
Critical guidelines: □ NEVER suggest they can have another child □ NEVER compare to your own losses unless also child loss □ Always remember and say the child's name □ Acknowledge birthdays and death anniversary forever □ Understand this grief often intensifies over time □

Support them long-term without expecting them to "move on" $\square$ Do not expect them to comfort you about their child's death
My specific plan:
LOSS OF SIBLING
Specific support needs: $\square$ Acknowledge unique sibling bond and shared history $\square$ Understand they may be supporting grieving parents too $\square$ Remember the sibling as individual, not just in relation to them $\square$ Recognize this often-underrecognized loss
My specific plan:
LOSS BY SUICIDE
Critical guidelines: □ Never judge or comment on the person's choice □ Let them talk about guilt and "what ifs" without trying to fix □ Connect them with suicide loss support groups □ Don't avoid mentioning how the person died □ Understand this creates complicated grief with added trauma
Resources to share:
American Foundation for Suicide Prevention: afsp.org
Alliance of Hope for Suicide Loss Survivors: allianceofhope.org
TRAUMATIC OR SUDDEN LOSS
Specific support needs: □ Understand shock lasts longer with sudden loss □ Recognize trauma symptoms alongside grief $\square$ Help them feel safe (loss shatters assumptions) $\square$ Encourage trauma-focused professional support $\square$ Be patient with non-linear grief process

My specific plan:
Common MISTAKES TO AVOID  Cheek any mistakes you want to be mindful about.
Check any mistakes you want to be mindful about:  □ Disappearing after the funeral □ Comparing their grief to others or your own □ Trying to fix their grief or cheer them up □ Setting timelines for when they should feel better □ Making their grief about your emotions □ Avoiding saying the person's name □ Offering only generic help ("let me know if you need anything") □ Judging their choices about how they grieve □ Expecting thanks or acknowledgment □ Taking over their decisions □ Sharing their grief publicly without permission
Reflection:
Mistakes I may have made in the past:
How I'll do better:
TAKING CARE OF YOURSELF AS SUPPORTER
Supporting someone in grief affects you too:
YOUR OWN EMOTIONS
$\square$ I acknowledge this is hard for me too $\square$ I'm talking to others (not the griever) about my struggles $\square$ I'm considering therapy if this triggers my own losses $\square$ I'm setting boundaries about what I can realistically provide
My support system:
<ul> <li>People I can talk to:</li> <li>Ways I'm processing my emotions:</li> </ul>

RECOGNIZING YOUR LIMITS

$\square$ I accept I cannot take away their pain $\square$ I know when professional help is needed $\square$ I recognize if this triggers my own mental health struggles $\square$ I'm pacing myself for long-term support
My boundaries:
What I can realistically provide:	-
What I need to take care of myself:	_
SUPPORT TIMELINE & ACTION PLAN
IMMEDIATE (First 2 Weeks)
Actions I'll take:
SHORT-TERM (Weeks 3-8)
Actions I'll take:	_
ONGOING (Months 3+) Actions I'll take:
	_

ANNUAL REMINDERS

Dates I'll remember each year: □
	]
QUICK REFERENCE: WHEN IN DOUBT
If you're unsure what to do:
✓ Show up (even imperfectly) ✓ Say "I'm so sorry" ✓ Bring food ✓ Say their person's name ✓ Listen more than you talk ✓ Do something practical without asking ✓ Keep showing up after everyone else leaves ✓ Remember significant dates ✓ Be okay with tears and silence ✓ It's better to show up imperfectly than not at all
NOTES & REFLECTIONS
Things I'm learning about supporting them:
Questions or concerns I have:
Ways they've indicated I've helped:
Adjustments I need to make:

IMPORTANT REMINDERS

Your presence matters more than perfect words Showing up consistently beats saying the right thing They won't forget who was there for them Long-term support matters most You don't need to fix their grief Just being there is enough

Download more grief support resources at MemorialMerits.com

Read the complete article: Supporting Someone Who Is Grieving: What to Say, What to Do, and How to Help

If they need additional support: Solace is available 24/7 at MemorialMerits.com/solace