INTRODUCTION

Estate planning for families with special needs children requires specialized knowledge that standard estate planning completely misses. One well-intentioned mistake can disqualify your child from government benefits worth hundreds of thousands of dollars over their lifetime.

This workbook guides you through every critical decision, from trust selection to trustee choice to guardian designation. Use it to organize your current situation, evaluate your options, and create a comprehensive protection plan that ensures your child receives quality care while maintaining essential benefits.

How to Use This Workbook:

1. Complete each section thoughtfully - this is not a quick exercise
2. Involve your spouse or partner in every decision
3. Consult with a special needs estate planning attorney before finalizing decisions
4. Update this workbook annually as your situation and laws change
5. Share relevant sections with family members who need to understand your planning

Let's begin protecting your child's future.

SECTION 1: CURRENT BENEFITS & SERVICES INVENTORY

Understanding what your child currently receives is the foundation of proper planning. Any inheritance or asset transfer that threatens these benefits must be avoided.

SUPPLEMENTAL SECURITY INCOME (SSI)

- Current SSI recipient: Yes / No
- Monthly benefit amount: $ _____
- Date benefits started: _____
- SSI case number: _____

SECTION 3: SPECIAL NEEDS TRUST PLANNING

TRUST TYPE DECISION

Do you need a First-Party or Third-Party Special Needs Trust?

FIRST-PARTY SNT (For assets that belong to your child)

Check if any apply:

- ☐ Child received personal injury settlement
- ☐ Child received inheritance before trust established
- ☐ Child has SSDI back pay settlement
- ☐ Child has other assets in their name

IMPORTANT: First-party trusts require Medicaid payback when beneficiary dies.

THIRD-PARTY SNT (For assets belonging to parents/family)

Check if this applies:

- ☐ You want to leave assets to benefit your child
- ☐ Family members want to leave inheritances for child's benefit
- ☐ You want remaining trust funds to go to other family members, not Medicaid

RECOMMENDED: Third-party trusts avoid Medicaid payback and offer more flexibility.

TRUST FUNDING CALCULATION

Estimate your child's lifetime supplemental needs:

Average annual supplemental expenses: $ _____

(Medical not covered by Medicaid, recreation, quality of life expenses)

Estimated years of need: _____

(Your child's current age to life expectancy)

BASIC CALCULATION: Annual expenses × Years = $ _____

Add 25% buffer for inflation/unexpected: $ _____

TOTAL ESTIMATED TRUST FUNDING NEEDED: $ _____

FUNDING SOURCES

How will you fund this trust?

Life insurance proceeds: $ _____

Planned: ☐ In place: ☐

Current savings allocation: $ _____

Planned: ☐ In place: ☐

Home equity: $ _____

SECTION 4: ABLE ACCOUNT EVALUATION

ABLE Account Eligibility Checklist:

- ☐ Disability onset before age 26 (or age 46 for recent expansion)
- ☐ Receiving SSI or SSDI, or have disability certification
- ☐ State of residence allows ABLE accounts

ABLE Account vs Special Needs Trust - Which do you need?

Advantages of ABLE Account:

- ☐ Easier to set up (no attorney needed)
- ☐ Lower cost to maintain
- ☐ Your child can manage if capable
- ☐ No Medicaid payback on first $100,000
- ☐ Tax-free growth on qualified expenses

Limitations of ABLE Account:

- ☐ Annual contribution limit ($18,000)
- ☐ Can't hold large amounts (not suitable for estates over $100K)
- ☐ Must be used for qualified disability expenses
- ☐ Disability onset age requirement

DECISION:

- ☐ ABLE account only (for modest needs/amounts)
- ☐ Special needs trust only (for comprehensive planning)
- ☐ Both ABLE and SNT (recommended for most families)
